EMPLOYEE SPOTLIGHT BRIAN BROWN

Brian Brown recently joined Syracuse Time and Alarm Co., Inc. in March 2014. He serves as Project Manager for the Central NY area as well as Cortland and the North Country for all product categories sold with the exception of fire alarm. Prior to joining the team, Brian was employed by Pella Corporation. Over nine years he held multiple positions that focused on marketing, training, sales, and management of one of the largest territories in the nation. Brian lives in Liverpool with his wife and three children. He spends his free time doing things with his family. Brian enjoys being outside and anything to do with food!

HELP US HELP YOU!

The Project Managers (PM) at Syracuse Time & Alarm Co., Inc. are here to help with any project...big or small. They have the know-how it takes to see any job through. With that said, it's very important to communicate any concerns with the PM. It's very difficult to overcome unknown hurdles.

Communication comes from all levels of the job from the electrician, the technician, and the customer...with the PM overseeing it all. Think of them as the 'ringleader'. Their job is to make sure the project goes as flawlessly and painlessly as possible.
